SC gives Bhushan 3 days to apologise

The activist-lawyer refuses to change statement on controversial tweets, quotes Mahatma Gandhi

KANU SARDA @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday gave lawyer-activist Prashant Bhushan three days to reconsider his stand that he won't apologise for his defamatory tweets against the judiciary.

A bench headed by Justice Arun Mishra observed the tone, tenor and content of Bhushan's 'defiant statement' makes the matter even worse. It asked Attorney General K K Venugopal to go through Bhushan's affidavit in justification of his tweets, and see if his reply is a defence or an aggravation of contempt.

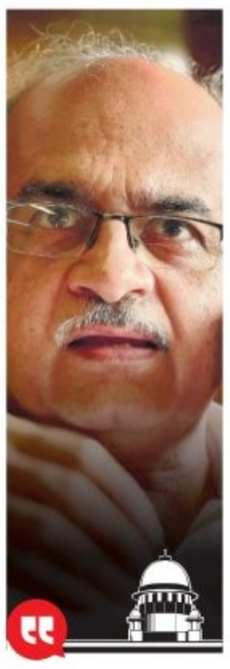
However, Bhushan told the court he won't change his statement. Quoting Mahatma Gandhi, he said that he will not seek mercy to escape punishment for doing what believed was right.

Bhushan told the court, "I am pained, not because I can be punished, but because I've been misunderstood. I believe open criticism is necessary to safeguard the constitutional order. My tweets were a small attempt to discharge what I consider my highest duty."

Dushyant Dave, appearing for Bhushan, urged the court to defer the hearing on sentence as he sought to file a review petition on it. The bench, also comprising Justices B R Gavai and Krishna Murari, said if any punishment is given for contempt, it will be inflicted only after the review petition is decided.

When senior advocate Rajeev Dhavan, also appearing for Bhushan, said his client has filed several cases in public interest, the bench retorted, "You may do a hundred good things but that doesn't give you the licence to do ten crimes."

The Supreme Court had, on August 14, held Bhushan guilty of criminal contempt for tweeting two derogatory comments against the judiciary. P9



My tweets were out of a bona fide attempt to discharge my duty as a citizen. I would have been failing in my duty if I did not speak up at this juncture of history. I submit to any penalty which the court may inflict. It would be contemptuous on my part to offer apology

Cabinet okays 10-day House session from Sept 21

ANUSHA RAVI @ Bengaluru

SIX months after its last sitting, the Karnataka legislature will be convened on September 21. The Cabinet, headed by Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa, on Thursday decided to hold a 10-day session, the modalities of which are yet to be finalised.

Owing to the Covid-19 pandemic, the legislature session in March was cut short and there was no clarity on when the House would meet again. But, with the Constitution mandating that the legislature should meet at least twice a year and the gap between two sittings should not exceed six months, the State Cabinet on Thursday decided to go ahead with the session.

"The Chief Minister has asked me to hold discussions with the Assembly Speaker and Council Chairman to decide on the modalities, venue, guidelines, etc. For now, these dates have been zeroed in on for convening the session," said Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy.

Apart from approving pieces of legislation to be introduced in the House to replace ordinances passed by it, the cabinet also approved two other key decisions.

Inflation worries made RBI decide against rate cuts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India's six-member Monetary Policy Committee, which met for the last time in its four-year tenure earlier this month, found the spike in consumer inflation so alarming that it chose to delay taking more steps to address the "deepest contraction in history".

Minutes of the MPC meeting, released on Thursday, showed the elevated inflation reading pushed the committee members to vote for a status quo. The RBI kept the repo rate unchanged at 4%, after an unconventional 115 bps cut since March to contain the Covid-19 pandemic.

"The generalised inflationary pressures across food and CPI, excluding food and fuel, in a situation where growth is expected to contract sharply, is a matter of serious concern," said RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, adding that the slack in the economy indicates there is little risk to inflation from the demand side. Retail inflation rose to 6.93 per cent in July on account of higher food prices. P12

'LOOKING AT UP MODEL'

The state is looking at how the Uttar Pradesh government amended its laws to handle violence. "UP made effective amendments to law which we'll look at," Madhuswamy stated.

Govt will wait for police report on PFI role in riots

ANUSHA RAVI @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday decided that it will wait for the police to submit a report on the August 11 DG Halli violence before initiating action against any organisation. While the violence, the provocation for the riots and its aftermath were discussed at length during the cabinet meeting, the State Government will decide on the next course of action depending on what the police are able to provide in their report about the involvement of the Popular Front of India (PFI) and the Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI), said Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy.

Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa will take up the issue of banning the PFI with the Centre, Home Minister Basavaraj Bommai said. P7

GARBAGE CITY IS 214 IN SWACHH RANKINGS

Slips 20 spots; BBMP official says citizen participation poor

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BENGALURU earned the tag of Garbage City quite a few years ago. And if you look at the Swachh Survekshan awards announced on Thursday, you will know that the City has made little efforts to shake off this dubious distinction.

The State and the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike hoped Bengaluru would fare better this time. But the City's ranking has actually slipped by 20 spots from last year. The City ranks 214 among all cities in garbage management.

Its national ranking is 37 in the category of population over 40 lakh in garbage management. It has also got the ODF++ rating. And in Karnataka, BBMP is recognised as the Best Self Sustainable Mega City, in the Swachh Survekshan 2020 awards, announced by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs.

BBMP Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad told TNIE that among 4,242 cities, Bengaluru ranked 214.

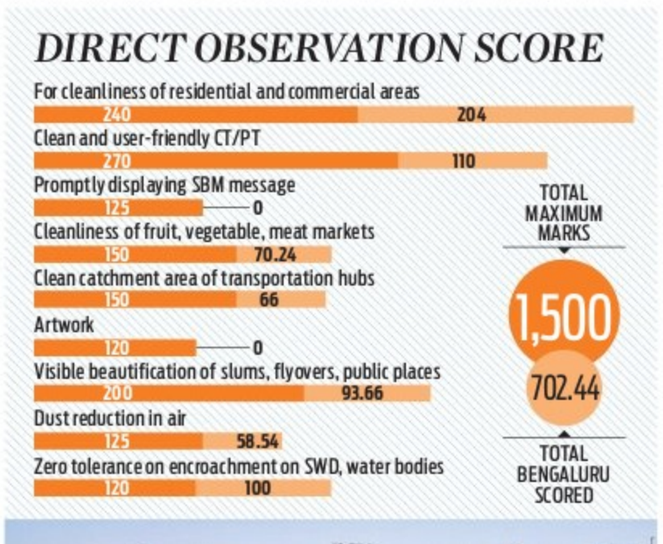
D Randeep, BBMP Special Commissioner, Solid Waste Management, said the city scored less because of multiple reasons. He said GPS was not installed in all garbage collecting vehicles, there were not sufficient dustbins to manage waste in commercial places, tenders for waste management were not in place and citizens participation was only 50% against what was expected.

Another senior BBMP official, seeking anonymity, did not mince his words. "Bengaluru got a 0 out of 1,000 in a garbage-free city. There is no policy or direction on how to go ahead in waste management. The age old saying — Too many cooks spoil the broth — fits Bengaluru's BBMP and its councillors. No one worked in unity and the result shows. The corporators want their say, the Commissioner wants his way and the Mayor has another direction," he said.

This is the reason why handholding by the National Green Tribunal (NGT) committee has helped cities like Mysuru, Tumkuru, Hubballi- Dharwad and Mangaluru and they have done better than Bengaluru, the official added.

An NGT Committee member said: "Despite having detailed discussions with BBMP, it was evident that there was not much interest. Bengaluru's biggest problem is its legacy waste. Other cities also have it, but they have brought it down to 1 lakh tonnes. But in Bengaluru, it's over 40 lakh tonnes and still they don't know what to do. Cement industries are ready to take waste for energy generation, but the corporation does not want to fund transportation. Councillors and the corporation run parallely. The City lacks political will in waste management."

S Ramakanth from Solid Waste Management Round Table said that there are best models available in the City, but implementation on the ground is minimal. At individual levels like at an event (Aero India or Global Summit for example) or festivals, garbage is managed, but the overall waste management is poor, he said. Initially garbage segregation was good, but later dropped to 50% and now even further, he added.



JANAAGRAHA RECOGNISED BY UNION MINISTRY

The city-based NGO, Janaagraha, was recognised by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs on Thursday for its Swachh Bharath Mission. It was one of the eight development partners felicitated by the Centre during the awards, for being one of the most active and key partners of the ministry. Janaagraha CEO Srikanth Viswanathan said they are proud and privileged to support the Swachh Bharat Mission through the Swachhata mobile app. "For us at Janaagraha, this is a huge validation of the role of citizen participation in our cities and of the role of civic technology in facilitating it," he added.

Vayu Vajra services hit, daily trips down to 180 from 800

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

REDUCED air traffic at Kempegowda International Airport due to the pandemic has adversely affected Vayu Vajra bus services, bringing down daily trips from around 800 per day to just 180 now.

Airports Authority of India figures show air traffic at KIA nosedived by 94% in April-June, compared to the corresponding period last year, with just 4.5 lakh passengers this year. This forced the BMTC to run only 23 of these buses as against 123 before the pandemic struck. Revenues too went down, from Rs 30 lakh per day to Rs 4 lakh now, said a top BMTC official.

Vayu Vajra services were profitable for BMTC due to the high ticket price. Minimum fare on the air-conditioned Volvo buses is Rs 120 while the maximum is Rs 350 depending on the boarding point.

Currently, no buses operate post midnight, with the first service beginning at noon and the last one at 11.35 pm. "We are running only from five areas to and from airport presently: Electronics City, Kempegowda Bus Station, Banashankari, HSR Layout and Mysuru Road. Patronage has been quite poor due to non-resumption of regular flight operations. It has picked up in August," the official said.

Asked whether drivers feared transporting flyers from the airport due to fear, the official said that precautions were taken and safety gear made available to drivers to make them feel safe while carrying out their duty.

Apart from taking precautions like mandatory masks due to the pandemic, buses have also adjusted the AC temperature from the previous 22 degrees to 24 degrees as a precaution in the past few months, he added.

HC to decide on claims commissioner on August 25

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court will pass the order on August 25, on a plea filed by the State Government seeking directions to appoint a claims commissioner. The government has sought for appointment of an officer to assess damage, fix liability and award compensation for the mass destruction of properties during the violence that broke out in D J Halli and K G Halli police limits on the night of August 11.

A division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Ashok S Kinagi noted that they will assign a retired high court judge or district judge, whoever is available from the registry, as the claim commissioner. The bench also directed the registry to list a PIL filed on Wednesday on similar issues, along with the government's petition.

Meanwhile, Advocate General Prabhuling K Navadgi placed records pertaining to claims commissioners appointed in cases related to riots/violence over the Mahadayi water dispute and the arrest of Congress leader D K Shivakumar, before the court.

This is for the first time that the State has moved the high court seeking directions to appoint a claims commissioner based on a Supreme Court order. The plea was filed on an appeal from City Police Commissioner Kamal Pant.

TO ensure passengers get contactless information in the current situation, Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) has set up virtual information desks at four locations in the terminal.

Passengers can have real-time conversation with airport staff located remotely over a touch-free video interface using these desks.

A release from BIAL said passengers can avail this facility for information related to the airport, its facilities, flights, food and beverages and transport. The service is available in English, Kannada, and Hindi.

Passengers must stand in front of the desk, which will activate the sensors and the interaction would start.

PETER VIDAL

21st August: Friday is the day sacred to the ancient planet Venus. She was known as Aphrodite to the Greeks, Ishtar to the Babylonians, Quetzalcoatl to the Aztecs, and in India it is Sukra. Whatever its name, all traditions regard it as the third most important planet after the Sun and Moon. To astrologers it's the bringer of love.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
By now the Moon is sailing through significant regions of your chart, and you can be sure that you'll receive a healthy shot of emotional energy. At work, follow a hunch, but keep other people informed, otherwise you will create havoc, even if unintentionally.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Begin to check out the financial situation, especially if there are tricky domestic implications. I am afraid that there is still little you can do without permission and support from partners, so you must take their wishes into account at every turn.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
It may be tomorrow before you can make yourself understood, but that doesn't mean that you shouldn't launch an attempt today! Happily, partners and colleagues will be increasingly prepared to listen. You never know - someone who once stood in your way may soon offer you helpful advice.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
There is much to be said for pressing on with work and routine chores, even when all the indications are that you will be increasingly impatient and dismissive of small daily duties. That's fine as long as you have experienced people doing your bidding. Otherwise you'd better be more circumspect.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Finally, other people will be able to have their say, and you will be ready to heed good advice. You may be more prepared to hear what children or younger relatives have to say than some other family members. You'll build up credit, and may even receive a major favour.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
One possibility not mentioned so far this week, is a chance of unexpected short journeys, perhaps a nostalgic trip, probably for a romantic purpose. Today's stars shift the emphasis towards family visits, or at least communication with people you live with: get talking!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
It's been a confusing week for many people, but today you can set a lead by restoring good and clear communication. One way forward is to get more involved in a charitable exercise, or pursue activities which are designed to make the world a better place.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You're getting mixed messages, so by now you may be feeling a little perplexed, even for a Scorpio! Your planets are still urging you inexorably towards emotional confrontation, but try not to be totally uncompromising. There may be a great deal of truth in what a partner has to say.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Quite a number of people have been suffering recently, many of them emotionally. Regardless of other considerations, your celestially-inspired task today is to begin to pick up the pieces. You could be much closer to solving a long-term question than you think.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You are not normally considered secretive, but that doesn't mean that you don't like to keep things close to your chest. Other people must remember that they have no right to take you for granted, or to examine your very private and intimate affairs.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Pleasant social influences reign for the next forty-eight hours, so life should be just as you like it. You may be in dire need of relief from more pressing emotional complications, including some which directly involve your work. Stay cool: they won't last for ever!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Too many times in the past you have been overshadowed by people who find it easier to shine in a crowd. But now that the Moon is so helpful you should take your heart in your hands and push yourself to the front. Believe it or not, other people will help you on your way.

CM may visit Delhi ahead of session

Matters like cabinet expansion, PFI ban and floods in state to be on agenda

Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa leaves after attending a cabinet meeting. He is expected to travel to Delhi in the second week of September | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

ASHWINI M SRIPAD
@ Bengaluru

AFTER some of his cabinet ministers, it could be the turn of Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa to head to Delhi. He is expected to travel to the national capital in the second week of September to discuss various issues, including cabinet expansion, with the BJP leadership.

Ever since Yediyurappa took oath as CM last year, he made several trips to Delhi, mostly to get approval for ministry allotments. The last time he paid a visit was in January to get approval for the induction of 10 leaders who quit Congress-JDS to join BJP, and later took oath in February. Then came the nation-wide lockdown in March. Also, he had tested positive for Covid-19 recently and was admitted to a hospital.

Sources in the Chief Minister's Office said the CM has a packed schedule till the month-end. "The CM likely to visit Delhi in the first or second week of September before the Assembly sessions starts on September 21. Union Home Minister Amit Shah is currently indisposed and the CM may not get an appointment with him at least till the month-end. There are five cabinet berths vacant and the CM is expected to allot portfolios to some of the new MLCs including M T B Nagaraj and H Vishwanath," the sources said.

Yediyurappa is expected to meet the Prime Minister and other Union ministers. "His trip will also depend on the availability of the central ministers. There are other issues like banning the SDPI and the PFI after the recent D J Halli riots. The CM hopes to meet the Union Home Minister to discuss this," the sources said.

A senior minister said that on Thursday, the CM orally instructed all the ministers in charge of the flood-hit districts to give him a report on the extent of damage and cost estimate to rebuild houses, roads and bridges. "The CM has assured us that he will present the report to the Union Government," the minister said.

Recently, Water Resources Minister Ramesh Jarkiholi met BJP leaders in Delhi and is said to be bringing pressure to include MLCs C P Yogeshwar and Vishwanath in the ministry. On Tuesday, Kannada and Culture Minister C T Ravi visited Delhi and met Union ministers Nirmala Sitharaman and Nitin Gadkari among others.

Cabinet rejig on cards, netas make beeline for New Delhi

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

IS the way to the Karnataka cabinet through Delhi? BJP leaders, C P Yogeshwar, Ramesh Jarkiholi, Adagur Vishwanath, C T Ravi and Kota Sreenivas Poojary, have all made a beeline to the national capital over the last few days to push for their own candidature or of their supporters or to retain the posts that they already hold.

Sources said that while Yogeshwar wants to be included in the cabinet, Jarkiholi is batting for his team members — MTB Nagaraj, R Shankar and H Vishwanath.

But what are Kota Srinvas Poojary and CT Ravi doing in Delhi? The sources said that they are seeking the high command's blessings not to be disturbed when the cabinet reshuffle or expansion happens.

Vishwanath, who lost the Assembly by-poll after quitting as JD(S) state president and later had to be accommodated in the Legislative Council, too made a low-key visit to Delhi recently.

But Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa's concern is not just about accommodating the three rebels, but also finding a place for RR Nagar and Maski MLAs.

Umesh Katti and other leaders have already gone to Delhi and met the central leaders to seek their blessing, which is essential to tilt the scales in their favour.

Speaking to reporters after the launch, Animal Husbandry Minister Prabhu Chavan said that at present, one ambulance will be given for each of 15 districts. BJP hits back

BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel on Thursday said the Congress and former CM Siddaramaiah do not have any concern for dalits. "Till date, Siddaramaiah has not visited the residence of Akhanda Srinivasa Murthy, the dalit MLA whose house was gutted by the SDPI activists," he stated. Accusing the Congress of having an understanding with the SDPI, he said it was the Congress that helped the SDPI candidate win the BBMP elections.

BJP pressuring police to implicate Cong: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

STATE Congress president D K Shivakumar on Thursday accused the ruling BJP leaders of putting pressure on the police to implicate Congress leaders in the DJ Halli violence and asked the police not to come under any pressure during the probe.

Launching the party's Statewide protest against the government over its handling of the Covid-19 crisis, flood situation and amendments to the Land Reforms Act, Shivakumar said if the police officials come under any pressure and fail to conduct an impartial probe, the Congress will stage a protest against the police department.

"Congress is not responsible for the violence. Police failed to handle the situation and now let them take action against those responsible for the violence and not try to tarnish the party's image," he said.

On the party's protest against the government, Shivakumar said the Congress party will continue to fight for people demanding good administration from the government.

Health workers protest after Nanjangud taluk health officer's death

Sources say immense pressure put on officer by higher-ups, leave denied

Sudhakar orders inquiry into death, looking at Rs 30 lakh relief for kin

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

ALL Covid-related duties at major government hospitals and Covid war room came to a standstill in Mysuru after healthcare professionals remained off duty following the suicide of Nanjangud taluk health officer. However, emergency services remained unaffected.

Dr Nagendra S R, who played a major role in preventing the spread of coronavirus during the Nanjangud pharmaceutical company cluster incident, committed suicide allegedly due to work-related harassment and mental stress, at his residence in the city on Thursday.

The news of his death spread fast and many healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses, health workers and Group D employees from across the district, gathered in front of the District Health Office (DHO). They protested with Nagendra's body, forcing senior district administration officials to rush to the spot.

Colleagues and healthcare workers alleged that Dr Nagendra was under pressure from seniors to achieve targets in rapid antigen tests in his taluk.

Several doctors accused ZP CEO Prashanth Kumar Mishra of abetting Dr Nagendra's suicide. They alleged that Mishra was pressurising the health official to achieve the targets and had also demanded his suspension.

"Dr Nagendra was working tirelessly for the last six months. Though he did an exceptional job, there was huge pressure on him to do ten times more tests than what he was doing. A lot of pressure was put on him by the ZP CEO, who should be immediately suspended and criminal proceedings started against him," said Dr H N Ravindra of the Indian Medical Association (IMA), Karnataka chapter.

Doctors said they will stay away from duty, except for emergency services, till the state government takes action against Mishra.

Sudhakar mourns DHO's death

Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar mourned the death of Dr Nagendra and said he is in touch with District in-charge Minister S T Somashekhar on steps to be taken. "I have ordered an inquiry and requested asked Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa to announce a relief of ₹30 lakh immediately, to which he has agreed," he said.

Recently, Periyapatna taluk health officer Dr Nagesh died after a heart attack, and his family members alleged that it was due to work pressure.

Sudhakar meets docs over suicide

ENS @Bengaluru

AFTER the news of Nanjangud Taluk Health Officer Dr Nagendra S R committing suicide came to light, a delegation of the Karnataka Government Medical Officer's Association met Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Thursday.

Dr Srinivas G A, District Health Officer, Bengaluru Urban, and president of the association, said, "We told the minister that compensation should be given to the family, and officers responsible for this must be suspended. He was asking for leave, but they were not ready to give him. The usual procedure in Covid testing is to conduct tests on primary and secondary contacts, but he was asked to meet a certain target of tests. Due to this pressure, he was driven to suicide. He was a sincere worker."

A statement by Dr Ravindra R and Dr Prasanna HM of Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes' Association said, "PHANA expresses heartfelt condolences to the family of Dr Nagendra, on his untimely death allegedly due to work pressure. We urge the government of Karnataka to create a conducive environment for medical professionals."

PHANA urged the government to conduct a high-level inquiry on the circumstances and events leading to the suicide.

Containment zones to become more compact

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

CONTAINMENT zones are set to get more compact from now on. The Health and Family Welfare Department has revised the guidelines on containment zones as the large number of Covid-19 cases are leading to far too many such zones, which makes surveillance difficult for authorities.

These zones will be restricted to the floor of an apartment complex, an independent house or street in a slum area if a positive case is reported from there. For rural areas, the complete habitation where the positive person resides or a smaller area will be turned into a containment zone.

"For individual cases, the authorities should paste a notice on the house, inform the neighbours, identify contacts and test them and advise strict home quarantine. There is no necessity of hard barricading in such cases. Hand stamping of the patient and contacts is not necessary," the guidelines state.

Clustering of containment zones will be taken up in areas where there are multiple corona cases. In such cases, the zones will be bigger in size based on mapping of cases and contacts, geographical dispersions, area having well demarcated perimeter and enforceability of perimeter control.

"The buffer zone is defined as an area where new cases are more likely to appear. It will be a 200m radius around the perimeter of a containment zone in both rural and urban areas. House-to-house surveillance should be done daily in containment zones and twice a week in buffer zones," as per the guidelines.

The containment zone will return to normalcy if there is no new case for at least 14 days after the last corona case is reported and all the contacts of the case are followed up for 14 days.

Officials train to rid stigma around Covid

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

OFFICIALS across departments, including the police, received training on how to deal with the stigma associated with Covid in an online programme on Thursday.

Commissioner for Health and Family Welfare Pankaj Kumar Pandey inaugurated the programme that was developed by the World Health Organisation and United Nations Development Programme, to combat the growing stigma and instances of discrimination against Covid patients and their families.

"There is an urgent need for empathy and moral support for Covid-positive people and frontline workers. We need to keep in mind that Corona warriors also include patients who have recovered, as they can be potential donors for plasma therapy. This orientation will strengthen the effort to build confidence not only in patients, but also all those involved in fighting the disease," Pandey said.

Facilitated by Dr Mohamed Shariff, deputy director, State Surveillance Unit, and Dr Rajani, deputy director for Mental Health, the training was attended by officers at the state level, and representatives of the departments of police, education, Women and Child Development, and Rural Development and Panchayat Raj.

Frontline workers at the district level will be trained too. Pandey also released two handbooks on Covid-appropriate behaviour, which were developed by the Karnataka Health Promotion Trust in collaboration with the State government. These will be distributed among health workers in 198 BBMP wards and over 6,000 GPs.

Cremation free, but family forced to pay Rs 6K

RANJANI MADHAVAN @Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike waived off crematorium charges for Covid victims last month, but the family of a woman who succumbed to Covid on Sunday was forced to pay a bribe to get the last rites done.

Even as the family was dealing with the personal loss and emotions were running high, the staff at Media Agrahara crematorium in Vidyaranyapura asked the family to shell out Rs 4,500 towards ambulance charges, Rs 500 for the cremation and Rs 1,000 for two PPE suits the family had to wear to witness the cremation, family members alleged.

In a written complaint to the BBMP, Jovina Smith shared her experience while trying to cremate her 86-year-old grandmother. "When we reached there, we were asked to wait for 2 hours for our turn. After this, my husband was called into the office at the crematorium. When I tried to follow him, they refused to let me in saying only one person was allowed. In the office, they asked my husband to pay Rs 6,000," Jovina wrote.

"We were upset because we had just lost my grandmother, so we did not have the energy and were not in the right frame of mind to question these demands. We were so grateful to the driver, Mr Sandeep, for all his help, we even gave him a tip of Rs 500," she wrote, adding, "I am very disappointed with the way things were handled at the crematorium and I didn't even know we were cheated until later. I will not rest until things like this stop happening to innocent citizens. Such unfortunate circumstances like the death of a family member should not be taken as an opportunity to make some quick money."

Families need not pay anything. We give incentives to crematorium staff. If they are still demanding money, we will take action against them

Jovina told TNIE, "Not everyone is in a position to pay the bribes demanded, but still they shell out money, only to be with their loved ones for the last few moments. This is not just about money, but about people being taken advantage of during such a difficult time and we want it to stop."

She urged the BBMP to publicise the fact that crematorium fees are waived for Covid victims.

BBMP Commissioner Manjunath Prasad said, "We will inquire and take strict action. Families need not pay anything and moreover, we give incentives to the staff working at crematoriums. If they are still demanding money, we will take action against them."

Covid claims lives of 2 minors, toll hits 102

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

TWO minors succumbed to coronavirus in the state on Thursday. As per the health bulletin, a 10-year-old girl suffering from Severe Acute Respiratory Infection and breathlessness, who was admitted on August 2, died in a private hospital in Bengaluru a day later. A 1.5 month-old-girl who was suffering from breathlessness was admitted to a hospital in Dakshina Kannada on August 15, and died three days later. These were two among the 102 deaths that were recorded on Thursday, which took the toll in the state up to 4,429.

A total of 7,385 cases added to the total positives in the state, taking the tally up to 2,56,975. Of these, 2,912 cases were from Bengaluru—the largest chunk. After Bengaluru, Ballari recorded a massive 483 cases, Udupi 351 cases, Mysuru 253 cases, Davanagere 245 cases and Kalaburagi 210 cases.

In better news, a total of 6,231 patients were discharged, taking the total discharges to 1,70,381. Of the 82,149 active cases, 705 are in the ICU across 30 districts.

State to conduct survey to guage Covid prevalence

The state will conduct a survey across all districts to estimate the prevalence of Covid-19, and the number of people who have developed immunity. It will involve individuals aged over 18 and will include samples from three groups based on risk level.

The low-risk population includes pregnant women at ANC clinics, patients in OPD, and their attendees. Moderate to high-risk will include bus conductors, vegetable vendors, healthcare workers, individuals in containment zones, and those at markets, bus stops, and railway stations. The high-risk population includes the elderly and people with comorbidities.

MENTAL HEALTH TAKES A HIT

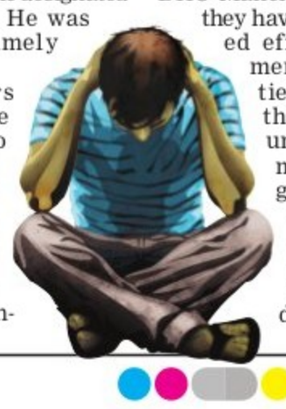
It's Mandya blues: Covid-linked suicides a concern in dist

AJITH M S @Mysuru

WHILE the stigma and mental trauma around the pandemic is widespread, Mandya district with over 1,400 active cases has seen three Covid-19-related suicides in two months.

Last month, a 55-year-old Covid-19 suspect had committed suicide at the designated hospital. The second case is of a woman who tested positive and ended her life by jumping into a canal in the first week of August. The recent case is of a 57-year-old from Nagamangala who committed suicide inside the ward of a private hospital.

The district also saw a positive patient keeping the authorities on their toes after he tried to commit suicide at the designated hospital recently. He was saved due to timely intervention.



Health workers point out that the deaths are due to the stigma and misconceptions around the pandemic, especially since a major chunk of patients are from rural hinterlands who are often targeted by people misinformed about the pandemic.

Speaking to TNIE, Mandya DHO Manchegowda said that they have put up a concerted effort against the mental issues of patients. He said that their team of eight under the district mental health programme as well as a team of four counsellors, specially hired to address the efforts during the pandemic, are in regular touch with the patients as well as their contacts.

"They identify mentally high-risk individuals as well as those with prior mental issues through detailed interviews. Currently they have identified nine individuals including two with prior conditions. The patients are on constant telephonic interaction with the team and receive treatment," he added. He said that those in private hospitals are also included in this.

Dr Shashank, a psychiatrist from the team, said that their programmes have started to yield results since the calls to the counselling helpline and their contacts have dropped from 25 to about six.He said that many people see it as the symptoms of the pandemic itself and resort to drastic steps.

They don't realise that the suicidal tendencies are due to the mental stress around the misconceptions and stigma, he added.

To tackle the stigma and misconceptions, they have been conducting ground-level interactions at PHCs as well as with the families of the patients and phone-ins on local cable networks, he said.

Containment zones are set to get more compact from now on. The Health and Family Welfare Department has revised the guidelines on containment zones as the large number of Covid-19 cases are leading to far too many such zones, which makes surveillance difficult for authorities.

SRINIVAS MURTHY BLAMES POLITICAL RIVALRY FOR RIOTS

MLA denies naming three corporators during police questioning, requests action against those involved in the August 11 violence

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

PULAKESHINAGAR MLA A Srinivas Murthy, whose house was torched by rioters during the DJ Halli riots on August 11, has reportedly blamed two Corporators and husband of another corporator for the riots, and alleged 'political rivalry' leading to the incident.

Police sources said the MLA, who gave his statement to the police as part of investigations, named DJ Halli BBMP ward corporator and former Mayor Sampath Raj and Pulakeshinagar BBMP ward corporator Abdul Rakeeb Zakir, and Nagawara Corporator Irshaad Begum's husband Kaleem Pasha.

However, when contacted by The New Indian Express, Srinivasa Murthy said he had not named anyone, but sought action against all those involved in violence and arson targeting his residence and police stations. "Let the police investigate the case and take action against all those involved," he said, when asked if he had named any party leaders in his statement to the police. The Central Crime Branch (CCB) has already arrested Pasha, while Raj and Zakir were questioned. Raj's personal assistant Arun has also been arrested by the police.

Life has gradually returned to normal in DJ Halli, even as the charred remains of vehicles litter the roadside, in Bengaluru on Thursday | MEGHANA SASTRY

A police official, privy to the statement given by Murthy to the police, said the MLA had mentioned that Corporator Raj had nursed a grudge against him for winning the Pulakeshinagar Assembly seat after moving to Congress from JDS. Raj was keen on contesting that seat, instead he was given a ticket to contest the CV Raman Nagar seat, which he lost.

The MLA is also said to have told the police that other local Congress and JDS leaders too had not been able to stomach his popularity. It is learnt that the police, who have already questioned Raj and Zakir, have seized their phones, and a senior police official said if any evidence pointed to them having conspired in the riots, they would be arrested.

Samiuddin missing? Wife to file habeas corpus plea

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FATHIMA Tabassum, the wife of DJ Halli riot accused Samiuddin who is suspected to have had links with the alleged terror module Al Hind, on Thursday said she has filed a missing complaint about her husband with the City Police Commissioner's office and is planning to approach the High Court to file a habeas corpus petition seeking his physical presence.

Samiuddin was detained by the Central Crime Branch (CCB) on August 15 night and is being probed for his suspected links with members of Al Hind, which was busted last year by Bengaluru and Tamil Nadu police.

Fathima said Samiuddin went missing soon after he received a call, purportedly from CCB sleuths, on August 15 night for his suspected involvement in the riots, where mobs set fire to Pulakeshinagar MLA Akhanda Srinivasa Murthy's ancestral house in Kaval Byrasandra under DJ Halli police limits on August 11.

Fathima, a resident of HBR Layout who runs an NGO named NAARI, said she desperately tried contacting him ever since and also tried to meet him, but she did not get any information. The couple got married two years ago.

A senior CCB officer said Samiuddin was arrested for riots and that investigations revealed his links with members of Al Hind, who are accused in bomb blast cases in the city.

The officer said Samiuddin is in police custody for further interrogation and has been held at an undisclosed location.

Fathima said Samiuddin is just a volunteer and not an office-bearer of NAARI, and that the NGO received no foreign funding as it is not registered under the Foreign Contribution Regulation Act.

Consider replacing IO in bank scam: HC to state

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

TAKING serious note of Sri Guru Raghavendra Cooperative Bank Chairman K Ramakrishna not being arrested for over two months now, as he is allegedly connected to some politically-significant people with control over the CID, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the State Government to take a decision on replacing the investigation officer (IO), if he is unable to trace the accused. Ramakrishna is allegedly involved in irregularities to the tune of crores of rupees at the bank.

A division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Ashok S Kinagi directed the investigation officer to submit a report on September 4. In the interlocutory application, the petitioners have alleged that no action was taken on the complaint dated February 24, 2020, filed at the Banaswadi police station, mentioning 27 borrowers who are influential. Referring to the allegations, the bench remarked that the investigation may not have been carried out.

It must be noted that the Ramakrishna is absconding for more than two months, though his anticipatory bail plea was rejected. In view of this, the IO must submit the report explaining why the accused has not been arrested yet.

Notice to state on Land Reforms Act

Bengaluru: The High Court on Thursday issued a notice to the state government on a PIL questioning the ordinance passed by the state government to amend the Karnataka Land Reforms Act. A division bench of Chief Justice Oka and Justice Kinagi was hearing a petition filed by Nagaraj Sheshappa Hongal, a journalist and general secretary of Jana Jagruti Vedike, who contended the amendments were brought by exercising legislative powers without studying farmers' economic status, or consulting farmer organisation.

Respite for North Karnataka as rain subsides

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

Gokak falls in Belagavi has been overflowing due to the bountiful rains | EXPRESS

THE Karnataka and Maharashtra governments' efforts to keep a tab on the inflow and outflow from dams on both sides of the border has been successful so far in preventing floods in many flood-prone areas across the North Karnataka region.

Although the water levels of the Krishna river and Almatti Dam rose drastically in the past few days, officials of the Water Resources Department on both sides of the border have maintained the level of Almatti, keeping the outflow and inflow at 2.5 lakh cusecs since Wednesday.

After North Karnataka faced severe floods due to the release of a huge amount of water from Koyna dam in 2006 and 2019, the State Government initiated stringent measures this time to prevent a repeat. Water Resources Minister Ramesh Jarkiholi said, "A senior officer from Maharashtra has been deployed to keep an eye on the release of water from dams and rivers in Karnataka. A similar arrangement has been made in Karnataka to keep an eye on Maharashtra."

According to sources, the level at Koyna dam is still short of 13 to 14 tmcft of its maximum level. It is unlikely the region could face floods until it is full.

Although, some areas in North Karnataka were flooded, mainly around the Malaprabha river belt, no other flood-prone areas were affected till now when the Krishna was in spate.

With rainfall subsiding in the past two days, sources said, the levels of most dams and rivers on both sides are under control. Water subsided in most of the flooded areas in Ramdurg and Gokak giving some respite to the people affected.

The district administrations of all flood-prone areas in North Karnataka are on high alert. The deputy commissioner is holding meetings regularly with taluk-level officials to keep a tab on the situation.

Tharoor backs Centre over T'puram airport

K C Venugopal calls MP's stand his personal view

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'Puram

IN a major embarrassment to the KPCC leadership, Shashi Tharoor, MP, has defended the Centre's move to lease out Thiruvananthapuram airport for 50 years to Adani Enterprises. The move of the state government is to ensure that the Opposition is also taken into confidence in its fight against the Centre and the state BJP leadership on the Union cabinet decision to privatise the Thiruvananthapuram airport.

Tharoor, who is also representing the Thiruvananthapuram Lok Sabha constituency, had always been in favour of privatisation of the airport where he claimed that it was in the best interests of his constituency. He tweeted, "My position on the airport has been consistent since before the elections. I am not a politician who says one thing to the voters and something else afterward for political convenience. Had my colleagues consulted me before taking a negative stand, I would have explained my views to them"

On Thursday, while addressing former prime minister Rajiv Gandhi's 76th birth anniversary programme at Indira Bhavan, KPCC president Mullappally Ramachandran came down heavily against the BJP Government. He maintained that the Congress and its workers do not have to be a member in Adani's payroll.

While the KPCC leadership has not reacted to Tharoor's tweet, K C Venugopal, MP, who is also the organising general secretary of AICC maintained that Tharoor's stand is his personal view. He said there is no need to evoke controversy out of Tharoor's tweet where the KPCC leadership had already expressed its dissent against the Centre's move.

Deadline for crucial 'crop survey' extended by a month

THE deadline for the crucial 'crop survey' has been extended by a month.

"Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, we could not create much awareness among farmers. So far, only 5.5 lakh farmers have uploaded photographs of their crops and themselves. For the benefit of farmers, we have decided to extend the deadline till September 24," the minister said.

The cabinet also decided to hand over land title deeds to 7.46 lakh families residing in 2,615 identified slums across the state at low prices.

"Title deeds for a maximum of 1,200 sqft will be handed over to those living in slums at discounted rates which will be lesser than guidance value," the minister said.

'Space sector reforms not aimed at ISRO privatisation'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

TOP Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) scientists on Thursday stressed on the significance of India's Space Activities Bill. They pointed out areas of deeper participation by the private sector in the country's space programmes, including manufacture of communication satellites, considering such satellites were on the import embargo list.

Participating in a webinar 'Unlocking of India's Potential in Space Sector', ISRO Chairman K Sivan said the main aim of the reforms was to enable the private sector companies to engage in space research and activities. But this is not to be understood as steps to privatise ISRO, he said.

"When the space sector reforms were announced by the government, there were misconceptions about it leading to privatisation of ISRO. It is not. I repeat: It is not privatisation of ISRO," Sivan said.

Sivan said with the opening of the space sector, the country's space agency could focus on technology development and capacity building and facilitate private sector participation in major national missions through announcement of opportunity.

India's Space Activities Bill is aimed at providing a dedicated space legislation for India with a much-increased role to play for the private players in the space sector. The draft bill was made public for comments by ISRO in November 2017.

On June 24, the Centre approved the participation of the private sector in the full range of space activities.

Towards that end, the newly created Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre (IN-SPACe) was set up to enable private companies to utilise the country's space infrastructure, and allow ISRO to guide them. R Uma Maheshwaran, Scientific Secretary to ISRO, said the bill is in its final shape and has been presented to the Centre for inter-ministerial consultations.

The activities of ISRO are going to increase, and ISRO will be able to better utilise its resources in taking up developmental as well as capacity building activities of the government, rather than the routine production activity
K Sivan, ISRO chief

Taluk hospitals may start new PG courses

ENS @BENGALURU

AROUND 170 taluk hospitals across the State will be assessed to ascertain whether they are eligible to start eight recently approved PG diploma courses under the National Board of Examinations (NBE), the Association of National Board Accredited Institutions (ANBAI) said on Thursday.

"Over 70,000 medical students graduate every year and only 40,000 PG seats are available. These diploma courses provide an opportunity to students deprived of PG seats," said Dr C N Manjunath, director of Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research.

NBE will formulate rules for eligibility for hospitals and the maximum number of seats will be in obstetrics, gynaecology, anaesthesiology and radiology specialisations, he added.

Dr Devi Shetty, chairman of Narayana Health said there are only 40,000 anaesthetists and only 10,500 radiologists for a population of 1.3 billion people.

President of ANBAI Dr Alexandar Thomas said many states face a shortage of around 85 per cent of specialists.

Govt looking if laws need to be amended

SO far, only the Uttar Pradesh and Kerala governments have sought a ban on the organisation.

"The cabinet discussed and considered what can be done under existing laws or if amendments need to be made to laws in the matter of banning some organisations. Since we do not have a report from the police as of now, we haven't arrived at a final decision. Once we get the report, if possible, and if necessary, the government will definitely initiate action in this regard," Madhuswamy said.

He added that the cabinet was keen on amending the Prevention of Destruction and Loss of Property Act, 1981, to initiate action as well as recover costs from rioters, if need be. The State Government has already approached the High Court to appoint a claims commissioner to assess the damage caused due to the violence and to recover the losses from rioters. "We are mulling if action should be taken only against people directly involved in the riots or also against those who indirectly incited the violence," Madhuswamy added.

Home Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who spoke to the media soon after the cabinet meeting, said that the matter will be taken up once again after Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa discusses with the central government. "The cabinet was apprised of the violence and it has appreciated the work of the police. The cabinet also appreciated the government's decision to recover damages from the rioters. As far as the ban on the SDPI and the PFI goes, the CM said he will discuss it with the Centre," Bommai said.

AN AIRPORT CAUGHT IN KERALA-BRAND POLITICAL SLUGFEST

Nothing is beyond politics in Kerala. The proposed redevelopment of the Thiruvananthapuram airport under the Public-Private Partnership model is the latest to kick up a political storm. As per an earlier decision, the Union Cabinet on Wednesday cleared handing over of the airport, along with the ones in Jaipur and Guwahati, to Adani Enterprises on a 50-year lease for development, management and operation. Immediately, Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan shot off a letter to the prime minister, declaring his government's intention to not cooperate with the implementation of what he called a "unilateral decision", and the Congress said it too is against privatisation of a "state asset". Interestingly, Congress MP Shashi Tharoor, who represents Thiruvananthapuram in Parliament, chose to differ with his party, saying he speaks in the best interests of his constituency.

Adani Enterprises won the right to operate the airport in a global competitive bidding process, in which the Kerala government too participated but lost. It then took legal recourse, and the case is still pending. The fact is the airport in the state capital is in need of a makeover. Besides lacking in terms of a modern look and facilities, the airport hasn't been able to execute expansion projects like the construction of a new ATC building and a new integrated terminal. Our experience with other airports in the country shows privatisation can bring in the necessary modernisation and lend facilities a competitive edge. The performance of the privately run Bengaluru and Hyderabad airports in comparison to the AAI-operated Chennai airport is a case in point. The difference is in the way they are run.

From a passenger's point of view, privatisation would mean more amenities and better services. It could also mean an increase in passenger and cargo traffic, as the private operator would be looking to maximise returns, which would in turn benefit both the city and the state. Agreed that the airport is one of the few profit-making facilities under the AAI's control, but that doesn't mean it will remain profitable without modernisation and expansion. The privatisation could prove to be a game-changer for the airport. It's selfish to obstruct its development for the sake of politics.

TN BJP SHOULD PICK A DIFFERENT BATTLE

The Tamil Nadu government's decision to ban processions, public installations of idols and immersions on the occasion of Vinayaga Chathurthi in the state has set the ruling AIADMK on a collision course with its ally, the BJP. The state government's decision comes amid the raging coronavirus pandemic. However, the Hindu Munnani, a right-leaning group associated with the BJP, has announced that it would defy the ban and instal idols across TN. With the state BJP failing to persuade CM Edappadi K Palaniswami, party leader H Raja on Wednesday tweeted that he felt this year's festival would be a battleground for Hindus. Lines have been drawn.

Ahead of Assembly polls next year, the AIADMK has been attempting to keep its ally at arm's length to avoid a repeat of its debacle in the 2019 Parliamentary elections, when antipathy towards the saffron party rubbed off on it. The BJP, too, has been trying to develop its own base, setting an ambitious target of 25 seats in the next House. In the process, it first turned to Lord Muruga, raising a furore over a seven-month-old YouTube video in which a hymn to the God is described in offensive terms. It sought to establish a link between the video's makers and the opposition DMK, painting the Dravidian party as anti-Hindu. Now, it has turned its attention to Muruga's sibling, Lord Ganesha. Whether the remover of obstacles will open Tamil hearts to the BJP remains to be seen.

However, Tamil Nadu has been reporting over 5,000 new cases each day and has a caseload of 3.55 lakh, with over 6,000 deaths. While it has seen some success in containing the pandemic with consistently high testing and surveillance efforts, the virus has by no means been tamed. As a responsible national party running the Union government in the time of a global crisis, it would be better for the BJP to choose a different battle on which to lay ground for political success rather than one that is likely to put it at odds with public health and safety.

Especially for start-ups, the sales capability has been a major reason for a company's success or failure. Thus, building a well-thought-out plan is critical

THE NEED FOR A GOOD SALES STRATEGY

PADMAJA RUPAREL

Co-founder, Indian Angel Network, and Founding Partner, IAN Fund

AMIT BANDRE

Sales builds revenue or value for a company and is the foundation on which a business exists. The sales strategy of each company is different and depends on its proposition. The strategy for an FMCG company selling bulbs will be significantly different than that of one selling perishables like food. Similarly, the sales strategy of a company selling engineering products like air conditioners and ventilators will be dissimilar to that of a services company like engineering services, software services, healthcare services, hospitality, etc.

While each company will build its own unique sales strategy, certain markers remain constant. Revenue projections and the order pipeline are good indicators of the company's performance, which also make it easier to attract funding. Therefore, building a well-thought-out sales strategy is critical.

Customer needs: To build a sales strategy, it is imperative to know the customer of your product/service and his needs, and map it to your company's offering that solves these needs. Most salespeople make the error of pitching their available product/service without understanding the customer's needs.

Even the market fit of a product is often driven by the sales strategy, giving credence to the customer's budget or ability to pay, or even the functionality of a product/scope of a service. Thus, one of the key elements that should drive the sales strategy is targeting the 'right' customer whose needs can be addressed by the offering—else it will result in a "no".

Sales strategy/plan: Building a well-thought-out sales plan can make or break the company. A complete understanding of your own product/service, delivery capability, after-sales support and positioning of your product is extremely important. It is also imperative that there is a complete understanding of the market—demand/supply, competitors/alternate solutions, the sales strategy of these competitors, strengths and weaknesses, etc., which all go into the pricing strategy

There are several sales strategies that can be adopted:

a) Direct sales: Here, the product is directly sold to the customer through shops and door-to-door sales. It is the "feet on the street" model. Ensuring that your product is displayed at a good, easily accessible and visible position in stores can improve sales considerably. Some companies like Eureka Forbes have excelled in door-to-door sales, while others like Amway have perfected the "home-to-home" model. These strategies have been used for both retail as well as business customers. Online sales through the company's own website is an oft-used strategy. Direct sales models need to be bolstered by advertisements and 'word of mouth' feedback.

b) Indirect sales: Companies can adopt one or a mix of several strategies:

i) Distributors: Companies appoint distributors to market and sell their product. This provides them with a wider reach to the customers, quickly leveraging the customer base already developed by these distributors. They are focused sector-wise or can be exclusive to a company if there is a broad range of products.

ii) Franchising: Service companies, like computer training institutes, restaurants and food outlets have successfully adopted this strategy.

iii) Tie-ups with Amazon, Flipkart, Zomato, Swiggy, etc., that can "sell" on your behalf to the end customer works for many products.

iv) For products with perishable demand, strategies like real-time pricing or offering an upcoming or slow-moving company product as a free sample with a slow-moving product can reduce storage/inventory costs while providing publicity at low cost.

v) Today, technology tools are leveraged commonly. Businesses like jewellery shops and real estate developers use virtual reality

The team: Once the sales strategy has been developed, flawless execution is key. Building a strong sales team is key to the successful implementation of the plan. A team with the right experience and high energy levels are some of the hallmarks of a good sales group. It must be trained to understand the market and client expectations to effectively highlight the benefits/strengths of the product/service, while subtly highlighting the weakness of a competitor.

For start-ups, the sales capability has been a major reason for a company's success or failure. It cannot be overemphasised how important it is to focus on choosing, training, incentivising and monitoring this team. It is the most critical part of a CEO's job. In fact, in many start-ups, the CEO/founder has to lead the company's sales strategy and get on the road himself if required!

A successful strategy is when it delivers revenue. This needs constant monitoring and attention of the CEO and board of the company to ensure that the sales team is able to execute the plan to achieve the projections. A constant eye on revenue and the order book, almost on a daily basis, helps build healthy revenues.

Sales translates to the top line of the company's P&L. This has to continuously grow so that the bottom line gives a profit. Truly, there is no other way to build a sustainable and growing company without the top line and the bottom line growing, as it is these profits that fuel the growth of the company. And this revenue-led "funding" creates the best value for the company's shareholders.

THE BELL THAT TOLLED FOR THE COMRADES

RAMESH CHENNITHALA

Leader of the Opposition, Kerala. Views are personal

In May 2019, the trading at London Stock Exchange was opened, for the first time in global history, by a politburo member of a communist party. The party may defend tapping global finance through masala bonds at a high coupon rate for accelerating growth and welfare, but the irony of a communist tolling for arousing the speculative instincts of global investors cannot be lost on any.

The CPM-led Kerala government's foray into the murky waters of international capital-financed high-growth projects has been marked by non-transparent procurements and contracts. In the last two financial years, no fewer than a dozen project management consultants have been positioned in critical projects, citing inefficiency and incapability of public services. These consultancies are providing technical or managerial assistance to projects such as the e-mobility one worth ₹4,500 crore for switching over to electric public transport, implementing ease of doing business and improving investment climate for entrepreneurs (estimated at ₹1 lakh crore), providing technical architecture to the post-flood Rebuild Kerala programme (₹10,000 crore), rooftop solar programme of the electricity board (₹3,000 crore) and the cleaning up of navigable canals in Kochi for the water metro project (₹2,000 crore).

About 80% of all awarded consultancies have benefitted a particular London-based consulting company that is alleged to have links with the highest corridors of power. Most selections are non-competitive nominations. The chief minister's obsession with high-value international consultancies has undermined public service to the extent that his general administration department advocated formally establishing a "backdoor office'" in the secretariat to overcome the incapacity of the IAS and the secretarial service. These show how a professedly pro-public sector government has become aligned with the spoils of crony finance capital-led aggressive "growth-only" approach.

The present credibility crisis engulfing the chief minister is largely a making of his own approach and style. Undermining the consultative Cabinet and constitutional services, the CM has positioned a dozen advisors and consultants, the chief of whom has been intensely questioned as a suspect in the ₹120-crore airport gold smuggling case. The 360-degree involvement and the centrality of the CMO in facilitating the crime stand established and have eroded the chief minister's credibility in the public eye.

The suspected criminal mastermind in the case has associated herself with the CM, key ministers and senior officers since 2017 and was instrumental in facilitating several international visits and parleys. Her crimes in prior employment were hushed up by the state crime branch, admittedly at the behest of the CM's police advisor and principal secretary, despite the High Court's admonishments. A case was finally registered only after her arrest in the gold smuggling case. After being terminated at the friendly foreign state's consulate, the mastermind was immediately re-employed through a consultancy—with no verification of antecedents—in the prestigious and high-security space park project of the IT department, led again by the principal secretary to the CM. Contravening every norm of public service, the individual continued to work for the foreign government, receiving emoluments while serving the CM's IT department. The principal secretary, now under suspension, allowed his flat located 100 metres away from the CM's office to be used as the base of criminal conspiracy. The Customs and NIA have seized gold and cash worth ₹2 crore from the lockers co-owned by the principal secretary and the mastermind.

The mastermind stated in court that the proceeds were commissions received from the housing for the poor project (Life Mission). The CM's principal secretary was also the CEO of the Life Mission for which the UAE Red Crescent had donated ₹20 crore in July 2019 to build 140 low-income flats. The CM will be hard-pressed to explain how a suspected criminal mastermind, described as the kingpin of the gold smuggling case by the NIA, enjoyed simultaneous employment with a foreign government and a state government project, frequented his office at will, associated with his chief of staff and extracted a commission from his housing project without the active connivance of his ministers and senior officers.

No CPM-led Left Front government has ever survived incumbency so far. They have not lost elections for want of propaganda or rhetoric. The state government's highly publicised early gains in containing Covid-19 now stand exposed in the face of the reality that it was ill-prepared for the present surge in infections. Its testing rates and containment measures have been tested by the emerging gaps in providing sufficient quarantine and timely hospitalisation. No government can be faulted for acts of nature or unexpected pandemics. What is being criticised is the ambitious appropriation of public activity in containing disasters and pandemics and the use of statist propaganda to hide the yawning gaps in governance.

The Opposition is merely pointing to the glaring failures of governance. It has a very open agenda of exhorting the people to disapprove of the Left government on well-stated grounds of multiple failures. The crisis the comrades of Kerala find themselves is paradoxically due to their cheating the capitalists at their own game. Instead of ensuring a level-playing field for the forces of production, Pinarayi Vijayan's regime has unveiled an aggrandised and vitiated genre of crony capitalism. The bell he chimed enthusiastically at the London Stock Exchange could be the last ever by any member of a communist party for a long time.

Giving hope to the youth

The Union Cabinet's decision to constitute a National Recruitment Agency for conducting online exams for Group B and C posts is a good move. This will give new hope to millions of unemployed youngsters and stop back-door appointments in many departments. The government should ensure transparency in this new system.

Abu M George, Pandalam

Improper remedy

In view of the recent riots in Bengaluru, the state is planning to recommend the banning of certain radical outfits. This is an improper remedy. These organisations can easily go underground and resume their activities. The need of the hour is strict imposition of law and order at the ground level.

Sarvothama Udupa Benagal, Bengaluru

Be friendly with Lanka

The return of the Rajapaksas to power in Sri Lanka must be acknowledged as the desire of the majority Sinhalas for security (Is India washing its hands off Sri Lankan Tamils? Aug 20). Decimating the terror group LTTE is an example of resolute leadership. With expansionist China extending its tentacles to Lanka, it would be prudent for India to be on friendly terms with the country.

B Kailash Shankar, T'puram

Clear distinction needed

One must draw a clear distinction between the genuine interests of the Tamil minority in Sri Lanka and Tamil secessionism. India, which is grappling with secessionist groups in J&K, should in no way encourage separatist tendencies in Lanka.

U Atreya Sarma, Hyderabad

Act against regionalism

This is with reference to MP quota: Politicians should put national interest first (Aug 20). It is shocking that parties are engaged in promoting regionalism and parochialism in order to gain electoral dividends. If such moves are against our Constitution, the judiciary should take suo moto action.

Bijumon P N, Idukki

Hypocrisy of politicians

One the one hand, politicians claim secularism in India. On the other, the 'sons of the soil' policy is raised when elections are around the corner. We criticise US President Donald Trump for saying 'Americans first' over job opportunities, but we are no different. If every state has a similar stance, there will be divisiveness in the country.

S Arjun Prasanna, Bengaluru

Step out of Gandhi shadow

As Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra herself has endorsed it, the GOP should seriously look for a person outside the Gandhi family who has the potential to lead the party. The Gandhi mother-son duo should take a political sabbatical. The party's new political journey must begin with a step out of the Gandhi family's shadow.

R Sivakumar, Chennai

On freedom of speech

The ways of activist-cum-lawyer Prashant Bhushan have been unseemly. Freedom of expression does not mean a babel of conflicting voices, but holding a dispassionate dialogue with the intent to reach a consensus. Once that is reached, it should not be questioned unless there is a radical development.

Laxhmi Rajyam, Bengaluru

The death of G Kasturirangan at the ripe old age of 89 removes from the scene a former cricketer, administrator, pitch curator and keen student of the game. A fine fast bowler, he never played for the country due to certain reasons though he was picked for the Indian team. He has well and truly left his mark on the game and will be missed.

Onam & family bonding

Kerala's directive that only local flowers should be used for decorations during the upcoming Onam as was done in the olden days will make the festival more meaningful. The advice about celebrating Onam within the walls of one's house will bring about greater bonding between family members, if nothing else.

Why cross the Lakshman Rekha: SC to Bhushan

Dhavan says Aug 14 judgment will be criticised, SC says 'no worries'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court gave two days' time to Prashant Bhushan to reconsider his statement on the contempt case against him. Excerpts of the courtroom exchange between the bench of Justices Arun Mishra, BR Gavai and Krishna Murari and senior advocates Rajeev Dhavan, Dushyant Dave and Bhushan:

Dave: I want to bring to court's notice the plea filed by Bhushan to defer the punishment till the review petition is filed and decided. I have 30 days to file the review petition and the order of conviction can then be reviewed.

Justice Mishra: But this remedy is consequential. You can file a review after our final orders.

Justice Gavai: Why do you want to give an impression that you want to avoid these proceedings?

Dave: And why my lordships want to give an impression that this bench wants to decide everything before Justice Arun Mishra retires? Heavens aren't going to fall if sentencing is deferred till the review is decided.

Justice Mishra: Suppose I weren't retiring, should I have placed this matter before some other bench for deciding the sentence?

Dave: In the larger interest of people, in larger interest of this institution, the sentencing must be deferred. This can't be hurried like this.

Justice Gavai: It was Rajeev Dhavan's statement on August 17 that review was ready to be filed.

Dave: It's ready but why should we file it now? We have time of 30 days, i.e., till September 14 to file our review.

Dhavan: I am not going to ask for deferment. Let the judges' words be final. Mr Bhushan wants to make a statement.

Bhushan reads out the statement: I am pained not because I can be punished but because I have been misunderstood. These two tweets represented my bonafide belief, expression of which should be permissible in any healthy democracy.

Dhavan: From 2G to coal block, from Goa mining to PWC case, from FCRA funding to CVC selection case, RTI — all this were Prashant Bhushan's case. You (bench) must examine who is the person before this court.

When your judgment will reach academy, it will be severely criticised. Over 19 pages were 'cut and paste' from Vijay Kurle's judgment.

Justice Mishra: Don't worry. We are open to fair criticism. Restraint has to be shown by everyone. There is a Lakshman Rekha for everything. Why cross it? I haven't convicted anyone of contempt in 24 years as a judge. This is my first such order.

Justice Mishra to AG K K Venugopal: What should be done when someone who has been convicted of contempt, says he has no remorse. Should we give him time?

AG: This court may give him some time but knowing him...I can say he has done some tremendous good work.

Justice Gavai again ask Bhushan: Do you want to reconsider your statement?

Bhushan: No. I don't want to reconsider it...I don't want to waste my lordships' time.

Justice Mishra: You better reconsider it. Don't just apply legal brain here.

Bhushan: I will consult my lawyers then. I will think over.

Group of lawyers start a petition in support of SC's contempt order

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN view of the Supreme Court's decision of holding advocate Prashant Bhushan guilty of contempt of court, a group of lawyers have started a petition saying, upholding independence of the judiciary and saving it from constant interruptions by certain repeated disruptors is the need of the hour.

The Delhi Advocate Group, which claimed to have the support of over 500 lawyers, said, "We sincerely hope that the Supreme Court of India ensures that such persons are dealt with in an exemplary manner or else such trends will only accelerate and strike a blow to the guardian of the rule of law.

In a statement, the group said that while legitimate criticism of both judgments and the functioning of the institution has always existed but when the criticism is calculated and actuated by malice, it is the authority of the court which is undermined and that cannot be permitted. Urging the Supreme Court to strictly deal with those "who peddle falsehood to destroy the institution", the lawyers asked the top court to uphold the edifice of the judicial system.

"It is unfortunate that when political ends of lawyers are not served by a decision of the court, they vilify the court by making scandalizing remarks," according to the statement, which did not name Prashant Bhushan.

'Pained at being held guilty by court but won't apologise; tweets bonafide expression of belief'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

PRASHANT Bhushan told the Supreme Court that he was pained at being held guilty of contempt but would not apologise for the tweets which were his "small attempt" to discharge his "highest duty".

"I am pained that I have been held guilty of committing contempt of the court whose majesty I have tried to uphold — not as a courtier or cheerleader but as a humble guard — for over three decades, at some personal and professional cost," the statement by Prashant Bhushan read.

"I can only reiterate that these two tweets represented my bonafide beliefs, the expression of which must be permissible in any democracy... I believe that open criticism of any institution is necessary in a democracy to safeguard the constitutional order.

"My tweets were nothing but a small attempt to discharge what I considered to be my highest duty at this juncture in the history of our republic...It would be insincere and contemptuous on my part to offer an apology for the tweets that expressed what was and continues to be my bonafide belief," the statement added.

"I can only humbly paraphrase what Mahatma Gandhi had said in his trial: I do not ask for mercy. I do not appeal to magnanimity. I am here, therefore, to cheerfully submit to any penalty that can lawfully be inflicted upon me for what the court has determined to be an offence and what appears to me to be the highest duty of a citizen."

'Cong will bounce back; Rahul to lead'

The Congress is down at the moment but will certainly bounce back, said Punjab Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh*, adding he felt this would happen in his lifetime. He is also worried at the rising cases of Covid-10 and said people needed to understand the importance of social distancing and wear masks. However, with easing of lockdown, things are limping back to normal, said Singh during a conversation with* Prabhu Chawla, Editorial Director, The New Indian Express*, on TNIE's Expressions, a series of live webcasts with people who matter.*

EXPRESS expressions
FEAR NONE. FAVOUR NONE

Why are you staying away from national politics?
I feel happier staying in my state and all parties have seen ups and downs. These things happen and this is democracy working. There is political manipulation and these keeps happening.
At the moment we are down, the party will bounce back and come to power in future and I feel in my lifetime itself. Sonia Gandhi will lead the party and if not her, then Rahul Gandhi will lead the party. Rahul is very competent and my choice is that Rahul should lead the party.

What's the Covid-19 situation in the state?
We started off on a better foot, but the situation is deteriorating. We have tested over 8 lakh samples out of which 36,000 are positive . We had lost 920 people till Wednesday evening. It is not a very good situation, maybe better than other states, but I am not happy. We are going to have an extended lockdown again in Punjab and I think we are going to peak in September and figures that are projected are not good.

Whom do you blame?
We had 11,00 people coming from Maharashtra and 900 tested positive and then we had 46,000 people flown in from countries in the West and 50,000 people are coming in from Delhi and Haryana. That is what we are concerned about and are planning to put some checks on the movement. My job is to see that predictions (100,000 coronavirus cases in total) for September can be cut. We are reaching our first peak... We started testing from 200 people and it is now over 17,667 and will be increased to 30,000 a day.

Recovery rate is low in the state?
I think this Punjabi attitude of 'everything is fine' — and people are going to hospital too late and the first 72 hours critical. Our figures show that 3 per cent of deaths in Punjab are of people who died at home. These things should not happen. Our major cities are under lockdown and we have added 170 towns but the fact is that villages are still relatively free... Since March 22, 4,000-6,000 people are fined everyday for not wearing masks.

Impact on industry due to lockdown?
By and large, money is short and there was a deficit of ₹35,000 crore in the first quarter; 50 per cent of revenue is gone because we had to shut down the industries, liquor shops. Liquor used to get us ₹6,000 crore in revenue. I have 20 lakh labourers from other states and all wanted to go home.

But now they want to come back and industries have started operations and we are putting checks and balances to ensure social distancing. I have put up a committee under Montek Singh Ahluwalia (former planning commission deputy chairman) to come up with a plan on how we can get the industry moving after this lockdown period.

Birla calls for global isolation of Pak for terror sponsorship

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

LOK Sabha Speaker Om Birla called upon the international community to isolate Pakistan to increase the cost of sponsoring terrorism, while exercising the right to reply in the ongoing fifth World conference of Speakers of Parliament (5WCSP).

Birla, leading an Parliamentary delegation to the 5WCSP being organised jointly by the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), Geneva, and the Parliament of Austria with the support of the UN, responded to Pakistan National Assembly Speaker's observation during the special event on 'Countering Terrorism and violent Extremism: The perspective of victims' today'.

"India exercises its Right of Reply to statement by Pakistan, a country whose PM glorified dreaded terrorist Osama Bin Laden, calling him a martyr in its Parliament. The UN Analytical Support Sanctions Monitoring Team mentions Pakistan as the leading exporter of terror with more than 6,000 nationals are currently said to be engaged in terrorism," Birla said and reiterated that Jammu and Kashmir has been and will remain an integral part of India.

"The international community should isolate Pakistan to increase the cost of engaging in terror activities. Pakistan's PM had admitted to nearly 40,000 militants on its soil. Pakistan's aggressions against Jammu and Kashmir in 1965, 1971, 1999 (Kargil), attack on Mumbai and Parliament, Uri, Pulwama etc. show it's state-sponsored policy of terrorism as evident in inaction against likes of Hafiz Saeed, Masood Azhar," Birla asserted.

Facebook row: Two BJP MPs write to Speaker, say Tharoor violated norms

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TWO BJP MPs, Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore and Nishikant Dubey, have shot off letters to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla, questioning the conduct of the standing committee chairman on IT Shashi Tharoor. The MPs have alleged that Tharoor is violating the rules of the committee by speaking outside the meetings about the witnesses being summoned.

Rathore has said that Tharoor speaks to the media about who is going to be summoned to the Parliamentary panel even before the committee takes up the issue for deliberations.

"I've no issues about who is going to be summoned, but the matters should be first discussed within the panel. Tharoor speaks to the media before the committee discussing the issues," said Rathore.

Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, BJP MP

The BJP is upping the ante against the Congress over the alleged biases by social media platforms, including the Facebook, for certain opinions.

Dubey, who is having a running spate with Tharoor, with both complaining of the breach of privileges against each other, sought from the Lok Sabha Speaker in a letter that the IT panel chairman be removed from the post for violating the rules of the conduct of the Parliamentary panel.

Dubey charged that Tharoor is misusing the Parliamentary panel to further his political agenda, saying that the chairman of the committee made uncalled for allegations against the BJP with regards to the social media platforms. Dubey in the letter to the Speaker argued that the social media platforms need to be regulated to protect the image of the country.

'BAT strikes likely, Pakistan desperate to push militants'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

HAVING failed to instigate the people of Jammu and Kashmir on the first anniversary of scrapping of Article 370, Pakistan is making "desperate" attempts to push terrorists before winter sets in, intelligence agencies have alerted.

Twelve Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) terrorists are trying to infiltrate into India in two groups, according to sources in intelligence agencies who have also warned that Pakistan's Border Action Team (BAT) has planned to carry out attacks on Indian Army posts to help the terrorists cross the LoC.

According to agencies, six LeT terrorists accompanied with a guide are trying to infiltrate in Rajouri district. Another group "accompanied by a commander, Abdul Fazal, are making attempts to infiltrate and also planned BAT-like action."

Officials in the security establishment said the participation of locals in militancy activities has reduced.

According to a report prepared by the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) on the eve of the first anniversary of abrogation of J&K's special status, the overall security situation in the Valley has improved. In the last one year, close to 150 terrorists, including big names like Riyaz Naikoo, were eliminated. The number of local youth joining terror groups came down by 40% as per MHA data.

From 188 terror-related incidences in Kashmir Valley from January 1 till July 15 last year, it is down to 120 this year. But the number of kills are up as 136 terrorists were eliminated during this period, which is up from the 126 reported during the same period in 2019.

Security forces going after militant commanders: DGP

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

SIX militants, including four commanders of Lashkar-e-Taiba, have been killed in three gunfights with security forces in the last four days.

The security forces, Director General of Police (DGP) Dilbagh Singh said, are targeting militant leadership and have killed 26 militant commanders this year so far.

According to him, the killing of militant commanders has broken the leadership structure of militants. "The killing of militant commanders has demoralised the militants," he asserted.

Lashkar's north Kashmir head Sajjad Hyder, his Pakistani associate Osman Bhai and another local militant were killed in a gunfight a few days ago after militants attacked a joint party of police and CRPF. In Handwara, Sajjad's successor Nasir alias Abu Saad along with his Pakistani associate Danish Bhai were killed on Wednesday.

> Dilbag Singh, J&K DGP

Singh termed the killing of the four as a great achievement of security forces and a major setback to the militants.

Nasir was a sharp-shooter and had undergone arms training in Pakistan, he said.

According to the J&K police chief, different groups of Lashkar in north Kashmir were working jointly. The DGP said the four commanders killed in last four days figured among the top 20 wanted militant commanders in J&K.

Manjhi exits from Grand Alliance

In another shock, RJD old-timer Chandrika Rai among three MLAs who joined ruling JD-U

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ Patna

IT was a bright day for the ruling JD-U in poll-bound Bihar on Thursday: In twin-raids on the opposition 'Grand Alliance', it succeeded in luring away the father-in-law of Tej Pratap Yadav, Lalu Prasad's elder son, and on the other, it found to its glee that the Hindustan Awami Morcha (HAM) has exited the Mahagathbandhan.

Besides Lalu's 'samdhi' Chandrika Rai, those who left the RJD to join the Nitish Kumar-led JD-U belong to the Muslim-Yadav equation, a formidable combination in Bihar's complex caste and religious politics.

Those in search of greener pastures include RJD's Feraz Fatmi (MLA from Koeti in Darbhanga), Jaivardhan Yadav (MLA from Paliganj in Patna) and Chandrika Rai (MLA from Parsa in Saran).

So far, six RJD MLAs have joined the ruling JD-U in the last few days.

The RJD's worst loss was Chandrika Rai. Accusing the RJD leadership of being arrogant, he said: "It is no longer a party for the poor. I express my full faith in Nitish Kumar, who has transformed the state from being poor to prosperous in the last 15 years".

JD-U's senior leader Vijendra Yadav later gave Rai and others the primary membership of the party.

As if the desertion wasn't enough, the RJD-led Mahagathbandhan was jolted by HAM's revolt. The Jitan Ram Manjhi-led party was upset with RJD for not forming a coordination committee.

"When the Mahagathbandhan's major partner has failed to do justice to its own ally, how can it dispense social justice to the people of Bihar? The people now know the RJD's political character," said HAM spokesperson Danish Rizwan, making it clear his party would no longer be in the 'Grand Alliance.'

He said Manjhi, a former chief minister, has been authorised to decide whether to join the ruling NDA in Bihar.

Reacting to the new round of defections, Congress leader Rajesh Rathore accused Nitish Kumar of being instrumental in the "MLA loot". "What Nitish is doing is akin to what a poor student does by adopting unfair means in exams," Rathore quipped.

An angry RJD has vowed retaliation soon. "If the JD-U has taken our three MLAs, we'd respond by taking 30 from JD-U," said party spokesperson Chitranjan Gagan.

Will Manjhi return to NDA? Probably, say analysts

Though the opposition party did not declare which coalition it will align with after walking out of the RJD-led Grand Alliance, close watchers of the evolving political scene in Bihar said Manjhi could veer towards the Nitish Kumar-led NDA coalition once again.

First in MP: Govt jobs through proposed NRA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

THE BJP-ruled Madhya Pradesh became the first state in the country to announce that government jobs will be provided to candidates in the state on the basis of the marks secured in recruitment exam conducted by the proposed National Recruitment Agency (NRA).

"We've taken a revolutionary decision for the welfare of our youngsters. Youngsters won't need to appear in any separate examination conducted by the state for getting government jobs in MP, but will get government jobs in the state on the basis of the marks secured at recruitment exam conducted by the NRA," Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan tweeted in Hindi on Thursday. "MP is the first state in the country to take the unprecedented decision of rendering government jobs based on marks secured in examination conducted by the NRA. This will ease the lives of youths in the state. Other states can also follow MP's move to render relief to their daughters and sons."

On Wednesday, the Union Cabinet on Wednesday approved setting up the NRA to streamline the recruitment process for non-gazetted posts in the central government and public sector banks. The new agency will conduct a Common Eligibility Test (CET) for all the competitive examinations.

Also, the development comes two days after Chouhan had announced that domicile candidates of the state (those who've passed Class X and XII from MP) only will be entitled to get state government jobs A law would soon be framed for reserving all state government jobs to children of MP, Chouhan had announced.

The opposition Congress, however, had dubbed the announcement as "misleading." It had linked the government's decision with the upcoming bypoll in the state.

Ram temple to be completed in 36-40 months: Trust

NEW DELHI: The construction of the Ram temple at Ayodhya will be completed in 36-40 months for which iron will not be used in the grand structure, the Ram Mandir Janmabhoomi Trust said.

"The Mandir will be built by adhering to India's ancient and traditional construction techniques. It will also be built to sustain earthquakes, storms and other natural calamities. Iron won't be used in the construction of the Mandir," the trust tweeted.

Soil testing has begun with the involvement of the IIT-Madras and the Central Building Research Institute, Roorkee, while engineering major L&T will carry out the construction work, said the trust.

As many as 10,000 copper plates will be used to fuse stones for the construction of the temple, it said, adding that stones and copper will ensure that there is no rusting in the course of time.

The trust has called upon the people to donate copper of a certain size on which they can dedicate with names of the family members. "Donors can engrave family names, place of origin or their community temples' names on these plates. This way, the copper plates will not only symbolise the unity of this country but also be a testament to the entire country's contribution towards Mandir construction," it said. ENS

Pre-police job training for minorities

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE Maharashtra government has decided to give pre-police recruitment training to youths belonging to minority communities free-of-cost.

The training expenses will be shared by the state government. The candidates participating in the training will be imparted general knowledge and physical training for police recruitment.

Each district will spend over ₹5.50 lakh for training and a provision has been made for this. "Aspiring candidates from the minority communities should take advantage and try to join the police force," said Nawab Malik, Minister for Minority Development.

The Maharashtra home department plans to recruit about 12,000 police personnel by the year-end.

Rajasthan: BJP summons four MLAs who were absent during trust vote

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN Rajasthan, the BJP on Thursday sought an explanation from four of its MLAs as to why they had remained absent during the trust vote in the Assembly on last Friday despite a party whip.

Leader of Opposition Gulab Chand Kataria said MLAs Gopi Chand Meena, Kailash Meena, Harendra Nimana and Gotam Meena were summoned to Jaipur for giving their explanations as to why they had gone away from the Assembly soon after obituary references.

Though the House was adjourned after paying respects to the departed members, it reassembled at 1 pm to vote on motion of confidence moved by the Ashok Gehlot-led Congress government on Friday. The four MLAs were found missing when the proceedings began at the House.

After rebel Sachin Pilot returned to the Congress fold, the strength of the Ashok Gehlot-led government in the 200-member Assembly rose to 122. The majority mark is 101. BJP had the support of 75 MLAs.

"Their (BJP's) every tactic failed in Rajasthan," Gehlot had tweeted.

Even as the BJP dropped its demand for a vote on motion of no-confidence, sources say the BJP could have faced serious embarrassment if a division of votes had been sought — only 68 MLAs of the BJP voted instead of 72.

There is a marked apprehension in the BJP circles as to whether the four MLAs had gone away to facilitate an easy victory for the Ashok Gehlot government. That is why Kataria informed reporters that though he and BJP state president Satish Poonia would talk to the concerned MLAs, "action will only be taken after their explanation and the ensuing course of happenings.

28% in Punjab's containment zones test Covid positive

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

AS many as 27.7% of the people in Punjab's containment zones are found to be positive for coronavirus antibodies, indicating they have already been infected and recovered from the viral infection.

As per sero-survey findings, the SARS-CoV2 antibodies prevalence in the containment zones is highest at 40 per cent in Amritsar district, followed by 35.6 per cent in Ludhiana, 33.2 per cent in SAS Nagar, 19.2 per cent in Patiala and 10.8 per cent in Jalandhar.

The first ever Sero-Survey was conducted in five districts of the state from August 1 to 17, in a systematically selected random sample population of 1,250. The earlier surveys were more generalised and were conducted by the state government in coordination with ICMR.

The selected containment zones, which had reported the highest number of Covid cases, were located in Patiala, SAS Nagar, Ludhiana, Jalandhar and Amritsar districts. The sample included 250 people from each zone, and from each of the selected households, one adult above the age of 18 was randomly chosen for the survey.

Overall, the seroprevalence of SARS CoV-2 antibodies was found to be 27.8 per cent in the containment zones where the highest number of Covid-19 cases had been reported.

However, in the remaining parts of the cities, prevalence of SARS CoV-2 would be lower, and in the rural areas the prevalence would be much lower than the urban areas, as per the report of the survey, which was aimed at finding out the prevalence of SARS-CoV-2 antibodies using Rapid Antibody Testing kits.

Record spike in cases

Punjab saw its biggest single-day spike of 1,741 coronavirus cases on Thursday, taking the COVID-19 tally to 37,824 in the state. 37 more fatalities were also recorded in the state and the death toll now stands at 957, it said. The record jump in the caseload came on a day when the state government announced extension of night curfew by two hours in all cities from August 21.

Electricity dept to be privatised by year end

If all goes to plan, the Chandigarh Administration will complete the privatisation of the electricity department by the end of this year. The Centre recently appointed a private firm to prepare a comprehensive report on the unbundling of the department. On privatisation, the department will become an autonomous body, which will be divided into State Transmission Utility and State Load Dispatch Centre. The STU will be responsible for the smooth transmission of power and the SLDC will be the main body to ensure integrated operation of the power system.

Poisoned tea lands Russian oppn leader in coma

Alexei Navalny had attempted to challenge Putin in 2018; supporters suspect Kremlin's involvement

HOW A BLOGGER BECAME A THORN IN SIDE OF KREMLIN

BORN: JUNE 4, 1976

EDUCATION

1998: Graduate in law from Moscow's Friendship of the Peoples University

2010: Became a Yale World Fellow

BLOGGING LEADER

2008: Navalny's rise began when he started blogging0 about malpractice and corruption in some big state-controlled corporations in Russia

2011: He urged his readers to vote for any party except United Russia, ahead of the parliamentary election, where Putin was re-elected

He called the Putin-led party a "party of crooks and thieves"

2013: Jailed for embezzlement in the city of Kirov

2018: Candidacy for presidential election was cancelled by authorities due to his involvment in an embezzlement case. Navalny denies the accusations

MOSCOW

RUSSIAN opposition leader Alexei Navalny was in a coma and on a ventilator on Thursday in an intensive care unit in Siberia after falling ill from suspected poisoning that his allies believe is linked to his political activity.

The 44-year-old critic of Russian President Vladimir Putin felt unwell on a flight back to Moscow from Tomsk, a city in Siberia, and was taken to a hospital after the plane made an emergency landing in Omsk, Navalny's spokeswoman, Kira Yarmysh, said on Twitter.

She told the Echo Moskvy radio station that he must have consumed poison in tea he drank at an airport cafe before boarding the plane early Thursday. During the flight, Navalny started sweating and asked her to talk to him so that he could "focus on the sound of a voice." He then went to the bathroom and lost consciousness, and has been in a coma in grave condition ever since.

Other opposition figures were quick to suggest Kremlin involvement.

"We are sure that the only people that have the capability to target Navalny or myself are Russian security services with definite clearance from Russia's political leadership," Pyotr Verzilov, a member of the protest group Pussy Riot who ended up in intensive care after suspected poisoning in 2018, told The Associated Press. "We believe that Putin definitely is a person who gives that go-ahead in this situation."

Doctors at Omsk Ambulance Hospital No.1, where the politician is being treated, remain tight-lipped about his diagnosis and only said they were considering a variety of theories, including poisoning.

According to Yarmysh, they initially refused to let Navalny's wife, Yulia, see her husband and have rejected requests for documentation that would allow him to be transferred to a European hospital for treatment. Navalny's doctor, Yaroslav Ashikhmin, told the independent Meduza outlet that he was trying to arrange the opposition leader's transfer to a clinic in Hanover or Strasbourg.

The secretary general of Chancellor Angela Merkel's party, Paul Ziemiak, has offered Germany's help in providing medical treatment for Navalny.

Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said it was necessary to wait for test results showing what caused Navalny's condition, adding the authorities would consider a request to allow Navalny to leave Russia, which has not fully opened its borders after a coronavirus lockdown, for treatment.

Like many other opposition politicians, Navalny has been frequently detained by law enforcement and harassed by pro-Kremlin groups. In 2017, he was attacked by several men who threw antiseptic in his face, damaging an eye. AP

Harris calls out Don's failure in protecting lives

WILMINGTON

KAMALA Harris made history Wednesday when she accepted the Democratic nomination for vice president, while joining Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton to condemn President Donald Trump's profound "failure" as a leader.

Harris, the first black woman on a major party's White House ticket, accused Trump of turning "our tragedies into political weapons." And she urged Americans to vote for Joe Biden, "a president who will bring all of us together."

"Trump's failure of leadership has cost lives and livelihoods," the former California prosecutor charged in her acceptance speech. "We're at an inflection point."

Shortly before Harris spoke, America's first black president, Barack Obama, delivered his own condemnation of Trump — and appeal for Biden's election. Former first lady and secretary of state Hillary Clinton, who lost the 2016 presidential election to Trump, pleaded with voters to take nothing for granted in another tight contest. "This can't be another wouldacoulda-shoulda election," she said. Others on the program included Senator Elizabeth Warren and Nancy Pelosi, speaker of the House of Representatives. AFP

SC worried IBC will wipe out dues of bankrupt cos

The bench said telcos could not use spectrum without paying dues

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday expressed concern on the possibility of over ₹57,000 crore in AGR dues owed by bankrupt telecom operators being wiped out in the IBC process.

During the day's proceedings, the SC bench comprising Justices Arun Mishra, S Abdul Nazeer and M R Shah continued examining the status of the companies under insolvency, such as Anil Ambani's Reliance Communications (RCom), Aircel, and Videocon Telecommunications. These, and other smaller licenseholders, owe a cumulative Rs 57,000 crore as AGR dues.

Observing that trading in spectrum is different from selling it under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), the apex court questioned whether a liability like AGR dues could be wound up, under the guise of selling spectrum. It also noted that telecom firms could not use their licenses if they do not first pay the dues.

Divided opinion

The Centre had earlier told the top court that there was a difference of opinion between the telecom department and the Ministry of Corporate Affairs on the sale of spectrum during NCLT hearings

"Without paying for the horse, telecos are taking a ride. Unless dues are paid, nobody can start using the spectrum," bench said. It had earlier noted that it was "extremely worried that almost entire AGR dues will be wiped out in the IBC process". The bench pointed out that after the spectrum is sold under a resolution plan under the IBC, the new user of the license will extinguish any pending demand against the spectrum assets in question.

Meanwhile, the hearing also saw the court direct the Department of Telecom (DoT) to all details of spectrum allocated to Reliance Communication (RCom) and Aircel since 1999, including all instances of spectrum sharing.

Senior advocate Ravi Kadam, appearing for Aircel Monitoring Committee, also told the court that the right to use spectrum is an asset, and in order to keep the company running, this right will be sold up the on approval of the resolution plan.

He also argued that Aircel's resolution process has been concluded, since UV Asset Reconstruction Company (UVARC's) plan has been approved. The dues of the DoT has been recognised by the Committee Of Creditors (CoC). He also submitted that the company has the power to transfer the right to use.

MSME credit sees little improvement

SESA SEN @ New Delhi

THE micro, small and medium-sized industries—the most vulnerable to the ongoing Covid-economic stress—are facing a hard time in getting loans as banks remain risk-averse and continue cherry picking.

An analysis of the latest bank credit growth data from the RBI showed MSME credit offtake saw a steep on-year contraction of 12.7 per cent in June 2020. In fact, lending to this sector saw a de-growth of 17 per cent year-on-year, ever since the lockdown was imposed in late March. While loans to micro and small industries contracted 7.6 per cent, for medium-sized industries it shrank by 9.4 per cent, while credit growth to large industries was nearly flat at 0.4 per cent.

"Credit growth continues to remain muted despite large rate cuts. I worry that a negative credit supply shock to the MSME sector may lead to a "credit-gap", i.e., a reduction in the supply of credit to small firms, leading to small businesses to shift towards higher cost providers of credit. This will have a bearing on growth," said RBI MPC's external member Chetan Ghate at the last monetary policy meeting.

The share of industry in total outstanding credit continues to be the highest at 31.8 per cent in June as compared to 33.2 per cent in June 2019. Within industry, many other sectors also saw declining credit flow during the March-June period under review. These include mining (-2.4%), edible oil (-8.6%), jute and cotton textiles (-6.5%), and fertiliser (-29.7%).

The low offtake comes despite a slew of liquidity infusion measures announced by Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman for the sector, including the Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS). "If credit continues to be expensive, these firms will become less capital intensive over time," Ghate pointed out in his observations.

Alarming spike in inflation made RBI choose against another rate cut

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India's six-member Monetary Policy Committee, which met for the last time in its four-year tenure earlier this month, found the spike in consumer inflation so alarming that it chose to delay action to address the "deepest contraction in history."

Minutes of the MPC meet released on Thursday showed the elevated inflation reading pushed the committee members to vote for a status quo. RBI kept the repo rate unchanged at 4% after an unconventional 115 bps cut since March to contain the Covid-19 pandemic.

"The generalised inflationary pressures across food and CPI excluding food and fuel, in a situation where growth is expected to contract sharply, is a matter of serious concern," wrote RBI Governor Shaktikanta. He went on to note that the slack in the economy indicates that there is little risk to inflation from the demand side. However, the supply-side disruptions and bottlenecks in the post-Covid 19 environment could engender these inflationary impulses, he added.

MPC members, however, felt there was room for monetary policy support and that they would support such a move when needed. Retail inflation rose to 6.93 per cent in July on account of higher food prices, breaching the banking regulator's upper tolerance level of six per cent for two consecutive months. The print for June was also revised to 6.23% from 6.09%.

Amid the high uncertainty in the near-term inflation outlook, two outcomes are possible based on precedents, noted RBI Deputy Governor Michael Patra. One, food inflation could "fall off a cliff" in August after an initial rise, like in 2016-17. Or, like in 2009-10, inflation could surge in the backdrop of a failed monsoon, inflationary pressures and a delayed monetary policy response.

GST COUNCIL

Compensation to states on top of the agenda

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE GST council is scheduled to meet on August 27, to discuss the issue of compensation to the states in the backdrop of falling tax revenue. "The meeting has been scheduled on August 27 via video conferencing and the letters had been sent to all the states. Right now, the compensation issue is at top on the agenda of the meeting," a senior official from the Finance Ministry said.

The meeting is very crucial since the council will be meeting to discuss exactly what the compensation to states would be amidst falling GST and Cess collection. There had been a further backlash after the revenue secretary had expressed the inability of the Centre to pay compensation to states in the future while reporting to a Parliamentary panel.

This was followed by media reports that the attorney general has suggested that the Centre does not have the obligation to pay to states, which created an outrage among state governments, even the BJP ruled ones.

Some had asked the Prime Minister to intervene in the matter. Later, however, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman had clarified that the government will soon discuss the matter with the Council. Under the GST law, states were guaranteed to be compensated bimonthly for any loss of revenue in the first five years of GST implementation.

CV makers may record ₹6K cr net loss in FY21

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

COMMERCIAL vehicle (CV) makers will lose ₹6,000 this fiscal since sales volume is expected to decline by 30 per cent on an already weak base, rating agency Crisil said on Thursday. In the first quarter of this fiscal, CV sales plunged by 85 per cent because of the pandemic-driven lockdown. The two major CV makers-Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors reported record losses during the quarter.

CV makers were already hit by new overloading norms and a slowing economy when the Covid-19 pandemic arrived, and sales volume had fallen 29 per cent in fiscal 2020. Manish Gupta, Senior Director, CRISIL Ratings, "Two consecutive years of high de-growth are likely to result in CV volume reaching its lowest point in 10 years. With utilisation down to a third, high fixed costs would dent the profitability of CV makers. Moreover, manufacturers may partly absorb BS VI upgrade costs in their quest to stimulate demand".

According to Crisil, cash flows may stretch further as manufacturers will tend to support key stakeholders to reduce stress across the value chain and help them rebound next fiscal – such as by providing dealers leeway on payment terms and making timely payments to auto-component suppliers.

That would temporarily increase the working capital requirements and raise the industry's debt by almost a third to ₹40,000 crore this fiscal, the rating agency said.

GOVT PLANS FURTHER STAKE SALE IN IRCTC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Centre is planning to sell a further stake in Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corp (IRCTC) during the current fiscal year. On Thursday, it invited bids from merchant bankers for managing the sale process.

"The GoI intends to disinvest a part of the paid up equity capital of IRCTC out of its shareholding through 'Offer for Sale (OFS) method of shares by promoters through the stock exchanges' as per Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) Rules and Regulations," DIPAM said in its Request for Proposal (RFP) document. The merchant bankers will have to submit their bids by September 10.

The government currently holds 87.40 per cent stake in IRCTC. To meet Sebi's public holding norm, the government has to lower its stake in the company to 75 per cent.

AISIA urges govt to impose 50% import tax

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE All India Solar Industries Association (AISIA) on Thursday urged the Centre to impose at least 50 per cent BCD (basic custom duty) on solar equipment in order to ensure the survival of domestic manufacturers.

In a statement, the industry body said that following the coronavirus-related disruption, the Indian solar manufacturing sector has witnessed a major downfall with exports witnessing a decline.

It also added that this is also the time when the government needs to give impetus to the Prime Minister's Vocal for Local movement.

The body welcomed the fact that government has decided to extend the Safeguard Duty, and provide land near ports to set up manufacturing units, but added that manufacturers in India need immediate respite to weather the storm.

"The survival of manufacturers requires the government to look into restructuring of existing policies like implementation of at least 50 per cent BCD, ALMM (Approved List of Models and Manufacturers); without which the future of the domestic solar module manufacturers seem bleak and dwindling," AISIA Chairman Hitesh Doshi said.

Quarantine uncertainty for Eng & Oz players

Bangalore, Chennai and Delhi franchises offer different takes on isolation period in UAE for those coming from limited-over series in England

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

Kings XI Punjab on board a chartered flight to the UAE on Thursday | TWITTER

AS THE teams started reaching the UAE to start training camps ahead of the IPL starting on September 19, there were contradictory statements regarding quarantine period for foreign players. Royal Challengers Bangalore, Chennai Super Kings and Delhi Capitals gave different versions, especially about players from England and Australia.

Players from these two countries will be involved in a limited-over series in England, which ends on September 16. The franchises will fly them over the next day. Question is, what happens after that. According to RCB, these players won't have to go into quarantine, since they will be coming from a bio-secure environment. CSK officials said they will follow the rule in UAE. Delhi Capitals informed players will quarantine for a week.

The IPL schedule is yet to be released, but all eight teams will have matches in the first three or four days. If the 29 English and Australian players have to be quarantined for a week, they are unlikely to be available for their first matches at least. Players arriving from the Caribbean Premier League may not face this problem because that tournament ends on September 10.

"The BCCI SOP clearly says players can participate without quarantine, provided they satisfy certain very stringent conditions. After players (of England, Australia) have played the series, they have to continue to be in the bio-secure bubble. From that, they have to go straight to a chartered flight without getting into extensive migration procedures, without getting in touch with the public. The BCCI is working to ensure that can be done," said RCB chairman Sanjeev Churiwala.

Of the 21 players in the Australia squad for the England series, 12 will fly to the UAE. Even if the six-day quarantine is relaxed, players have to clear tests on arrival in the UAE.

"They have to go through the testing procedure before they participate," added Churiwala. Delhi Capitals are preparing for something different. "They (Australian, English players) fly in and get the mandatory tests plus quarantine done. Only then can they step out. A week's quarantine is the scheduled timeframe. Teams have been requesting for a shorter quarantine, but we are not aware of rules being relaxed," said a spokesperson.

A CSK official said they would follow the quarantine rules in place in the UAE.

Teams landing in the UAE will undergo a week of quarantine before starting their three-week camps from August 29 onwards. They will be based in Dubai, Sharjah and Abu Dhabi. There are dedicated hotels for each team and the bio-secure bubble will include hotel and travel to training and matches.

"The hotel we have shortlisted has made some unique requirements available to us. A complete block dedicated to us, with 150 rooms. No outsider is allowed in that block. Exclusive facilities are provided, including gym, conference rooms and others required for the team and support staff," Churiwala added.

Munich march

Merry-making Bayern Munich continued on their path to glory with a 3-0 win over Lyon in the semifinals of the Champions League. Here's a look at the talking points...

MISS AND HIT

Lyon could have scored twice before the Bavarians opened their account through Serge Gnabry. They continued to suffer because of their profligacy, something the German team couldn't be accused of. Bayern have now scored 42 goals in just 10 games in Europe.

BACK CONCERN

Bayern's proactive football where in they keep pressing sees them play a high line, even though they defend with numbers. Lyon's counters exposed this tactic without taking advantage. Kylian Mbappe and Neymar may have fewer problems getting behind that defence, if Hansi Flick's men fail to execute the plan perfectly.

Lyon fought hard and made things hard for us. PSG have quick players and we will have to organise our defence differently. They are a great team, fought their way into the semifinal and then reached the final. They have quick players, but we know our biggest strength is putting our opponents under pressure."

Hansi Flick, Bayern coach

15 Robert Lewandowski has scored 15 goals in Europe this season, more than any.

11 Saturday's final will be Bayern's 11th in Champions League and fourth since 2010.

Rivals seek fresh polls in AAI again

AYANTAN CHOWDHURY @ New Delhi

APART from the matter pertaining to the recognition of national sports federations (NSF), the Archery Association of India (AAI) election case will also come up for hearing in Delhi High Court on Friday. Former Chandigarh faction secretary Maha Singh has filed another application seeking to make null and void January's elections because of the inclusion of Uttarakhand in electoral roll.

Singh had raised objections in January and the court had asked Returning Officer PK Tripathi to pass appropriate orders. And after going through the facts presented in the case and since the election process was at an advanced stage, Tripathi had decided against excluding Uttarakhand.

Seven months after the elections, the rival faction has chosen to fight it out in court. Their argument is, Uttarakhand Archery Association (UAA) was not registered under the Societies Registration Act on or before December 4, 2017. The Returning Officer had already deleted the names of Jammu and Kashmir and Uttar Pradesh according to the said clause. The rival faction now seeks fresh elections, urging the court to quash the elections in January.

Prez in Delhi, award recipients in SAI centres

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

IN WHAT could be a new beginning for the national awards ceremony, the sports ministry is planning to confer this year's sports awards virtually. It is understood that within the next eight days, the ministry will make arrangements to give away the Khel Ratna, Arjuna, Dronacharya, Dhyan Chand and other awards online and it would be telecast live on TV.

President Ram Nath Kovind would be conferring the awards at the function virtually, from Rashtrapati Bhavan.

If sources in the ministry are to be believed, around 76 names have been recommended by the sports awards committee.

Recipients of Arjuna would be presented bronze statues in advance. Although the ministry will formally announce the recipients only on August 29 (National Sports Day), it is understood that more or less all names recommended will be awarded. If sources are to be believed, the ministry is already in touch with the chosen athletes, para athletes and coaches.

According to the ministry, athletes and coaches would be required to reach the nearest Sports Authority of India centre in their states, so that there is no quarantine issue. LEDs will be set up in these centres up to see the proceedings beamed from Rashtrapati Bhavan. Official broadcaster Doordarshan would be televising the event live.

Citations would be read from Rashtrapati Bhavan. Simultaneously, the athlete/coach would come up after the citation is read and accept the award with a bow. The award scroll will be shown on screen. Although the presentation will be made online, procedures followed at Rashtrapati Bhavan will remain the same. The sports minister and ministry officials will attend from a conference hall at the ministry.

The ministry has started getting measurements from the athletes and coaches for the maroon blazers to be couriered to them.

The challenge, the ministry believes, would be to organise the event at a short notice. This year's Padma awards ceremony was deferred due to Covid-19 earlier.

The National Informatics Centre is expected to set up the required systems in the SAI centres to be visited by athletes and coaches for the function.

New treatment offers hope for diabetics

HILOs, when grown in a 3D environment mimicking the pancreas, and turbocharged with a 'genetic switch', produce insulin

BODY BASICS

TOKYO: A new technique that grows insulin-producing cells and can protect them from immune attack after they are transplanted may offer new hope for treating some people with diabetes. In type-1 diabetes, the body turns on itself and attacks the so-called beta cells inside clusters in the pancreas called "islets".

These beta cells are responsible for gauging sugar levels in the blood and releasing insulin to keep them stable. Without them, diabetics must rely on insulin injections or pumps.

One treatment devised to end that reliance involves transplanting donor islets into diabetics, but the process is complicated by several obstacles, including a shortage of donors. Islets also often fail to connect with blood supply, and even when they do, like other transplants, they can come under attack by the recipient's immune system, which views the cells as invaders. As result, patients have to take drugs that suppress their immune systems, protecting their transplant but potentially exposing the rest of their body to illness.

In a bid to overcome some of these challenges, a team looked to find another source for islets, by coaxing induced pluripotent stem cells (iPS) to produce what the team called HILOs, or human islet-like organoids. These HILOs, when grown in a 3D environment mimicking the pancreas and then turbocharged with a "genetic switch", successfully produced insulin and were able to regulate blood glucose when transplanted into diabetic mice.

"In the past, this functionality was only achieved after a month-long maturation in a living animal," said Ronald Evans, director of the Gene Expression Lab at the Salk Institute for Biological Studies. "This breakthrough allows for the production of functional HILOs which are active on the first day of transplantation, placing us closer to clinical applications," Evans, who led the study, said. Having found a potential way to solve the supply chain problem, the scientists then sought to tackle the issue of immune rejection.

They focused on something called PD-L1, a so-called checkpoint protein that is known to inhibit the body's immune response. In cancer treatments, medication is sometimes used to block PD-L1, boosting the body's immune response to cancer cells. The team effectively reversed that process, and induced the HILOs to express the protein in a bid to outwit the immune system. "Normally, human cells placed in a mouse would be eliminated within a day or two," said Evans. "We discovered a way to create an immune shield that makes human cells invisible to the immune system."

While HILOs transplanted into mice without the PD-L1 protection gradually stopped functioning, those induced to express the protein were shielded and continued to help diabetic mice regulate their blood glucose for more than 50 days.

California smarting under heat, unhealthy smoky air and wildfire

UP IN SMOKE

SAN FRANCISCO: Northern Californians were confronted with multiple threats as wildfires, unhealthy smoky air, extreme heat, the looming possibility of power outages and an ongoing pandemic forced many to weigh the risks of staying indoors or going outside.

Ash sprinkled the ground and smoke from several wildfires cast an eerie glow over much of the San Francisco Bay Area on Wednesday, creating unhealthy air quality and heightening concerns about people most prone to respiratory illnesses.

As ozone pollution reached unhealthy levels in some places, the region's air district and public health officials urged people to stay inside with windows and doors shut until the smoke subsided. There was no relief in sight: the forecast for Thursday called for some of the worst air in the world, with the air quality index doubling in the densely populated parts of the Bay Area.

Fire rages on in the dry jungles of California on Wednesday | AFP

The region's air district extended a 'Spare the Air' alert through Sunday, which makes it illegal to burn wood. Smoke can irritate the eyes and airways, causing coughing, a dry scratchy throat and irritated sinuses.

Elevated particulate matter in the air can trigger wheezing in those who suffer from asthma, emphysema or COPD.

"I'm feeling lightheaded and I'm a healthy 30-year old. Imagine what it's like if you're an older person or have asthma,' said Kyle Laurentine of San Mateo. 'I worry, especially in the COVID-19 era, that we're in a state of respiratory vulnerability.' But with a statewide call to conserve energy to avert another rolling power outage, people sweltering in a prolonged heat wave and surrounded by smoke must choose between cranking their fans and air conditioners or shutting them down to conserve energy.
